RE: Stein et al. v. Skatteforvaltningen
23 Civ. 2508 (NRB)

Counsel:

The Court is in receipt of the request of Messrs. Stein, Lhote, and McGee to hold oral argument, ECF No. 199, and SKAT's response, ECF No. 200. As of now, the Court does not perceive a need for oral argument. As counsel are well aware, not only did the Court preside at the three-day non-jury trial, but the Court authored several substantive opinions prior to trial which addressed issues that were the subject of trial. In short, the Court was, and remains, well-versed in the issues that have been present in the case from the outset. Should the Court's view on the need for oral argument change, counsel will be notified promptly.

On a separate note, the Court has not received electronic versions of all exhibits. Accordingly, by June 20, 2025, the parties are directed to file electronic versions of all exhibits that were not previously submitted.
